

Transportation Data Analysis

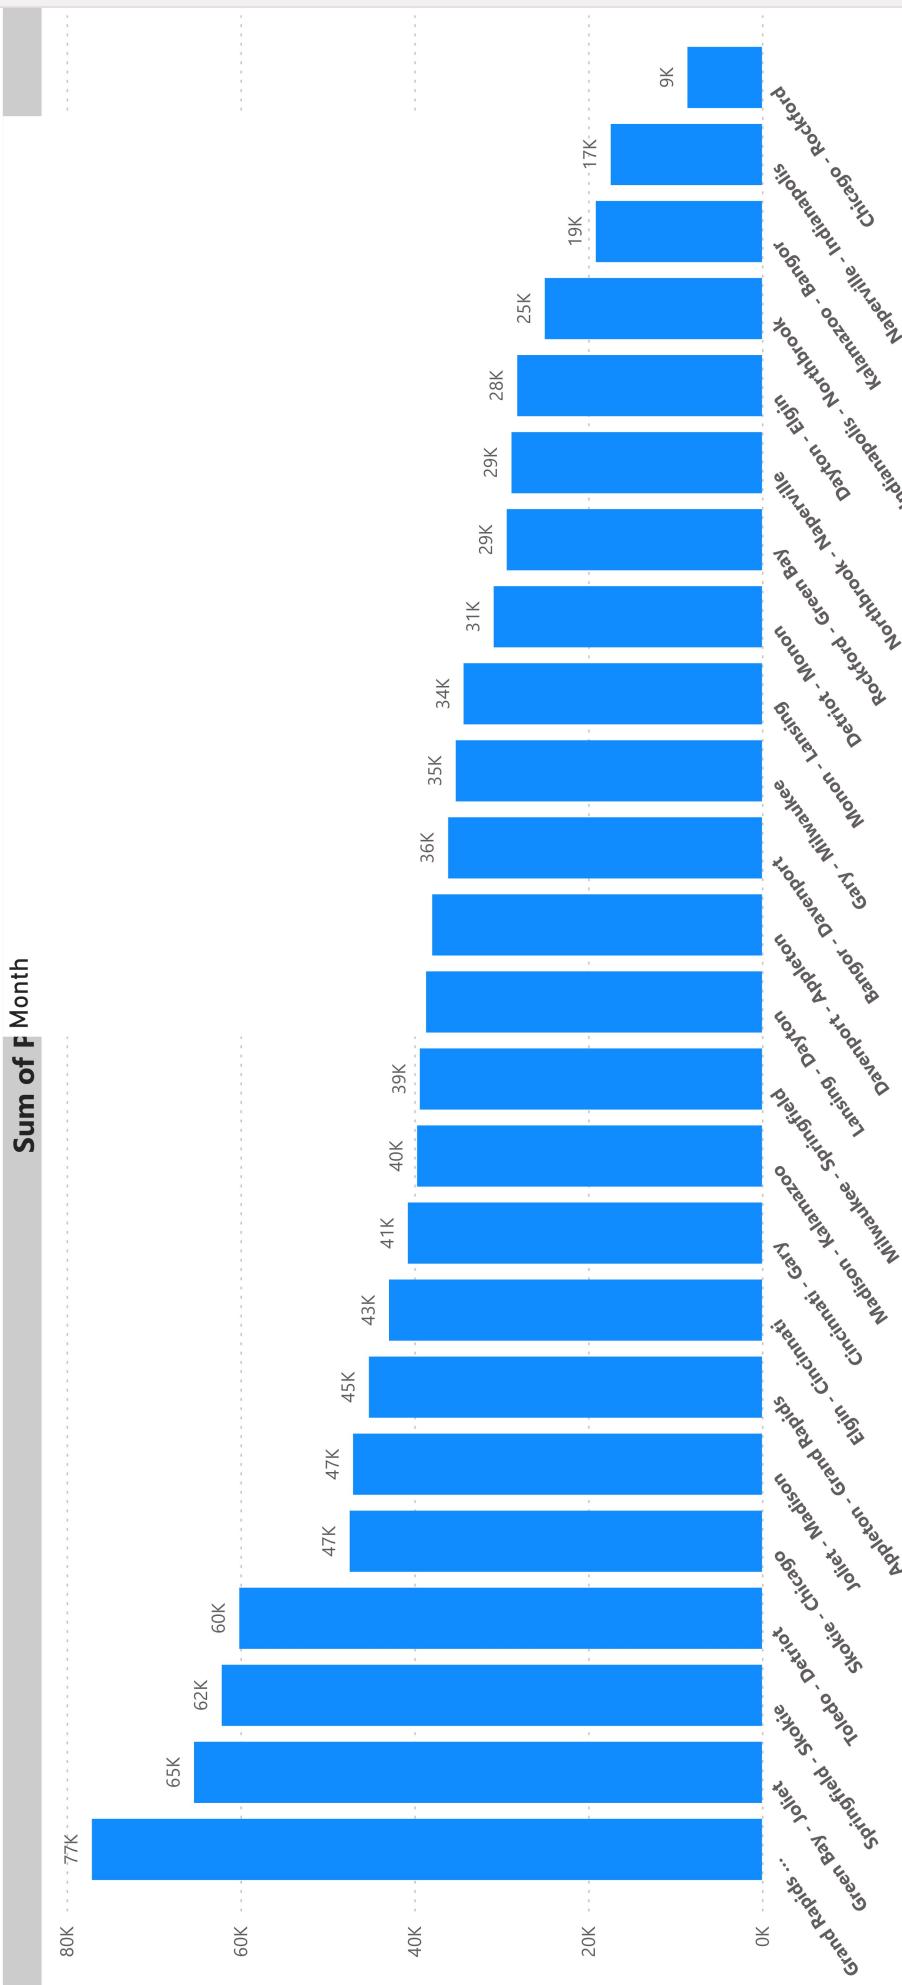

Quick measure

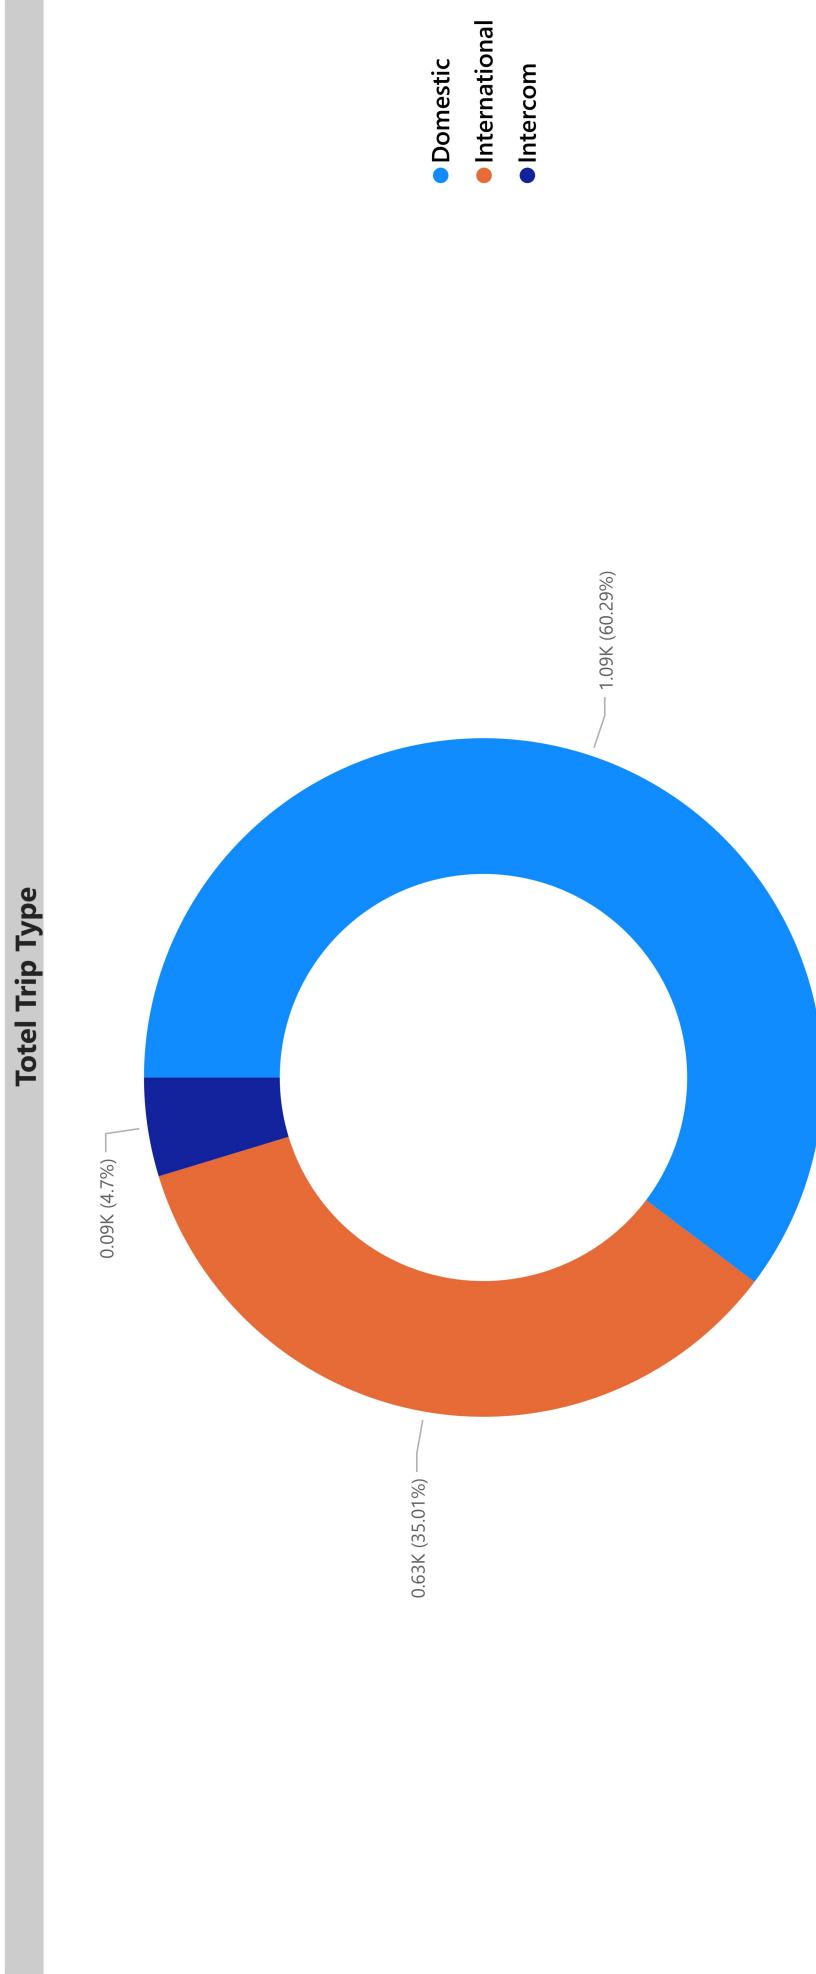

Revenue and Cost over the Year

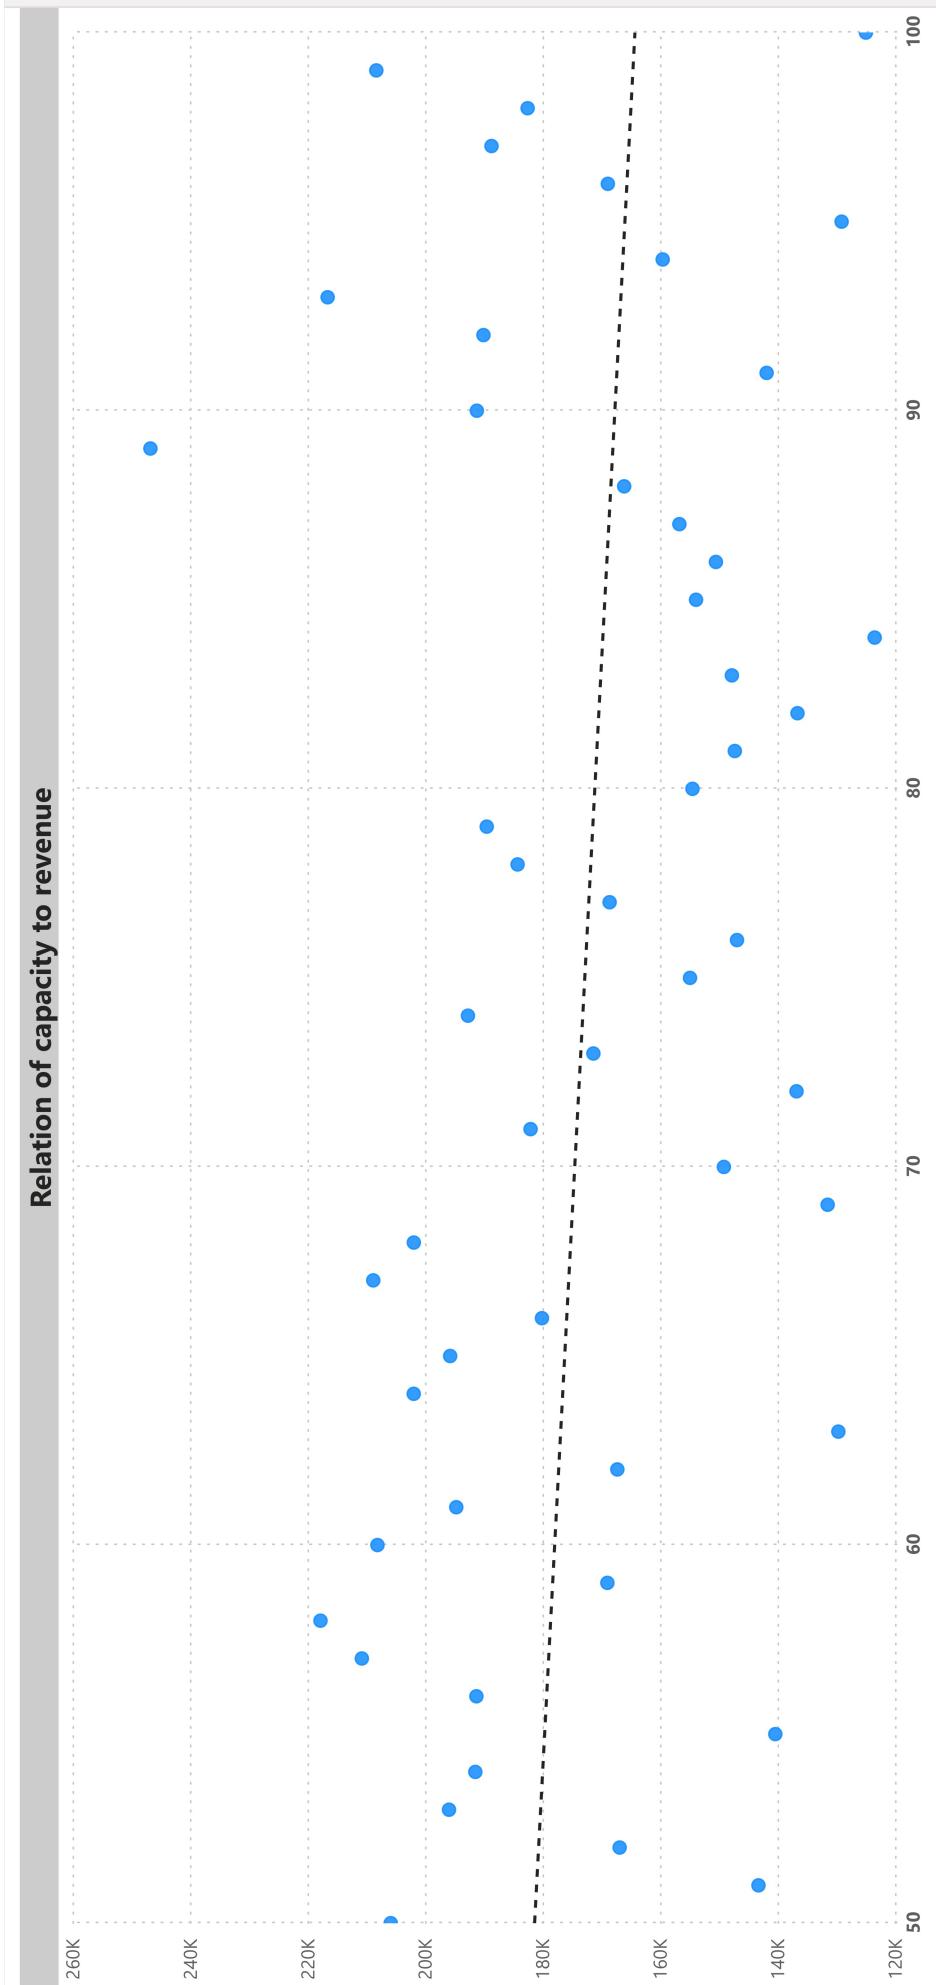

There is a huge downturn in the month of September with revenue reduce by 72%. From January to August were the highest profit generating months in which every month generated nearly a million of revenue.

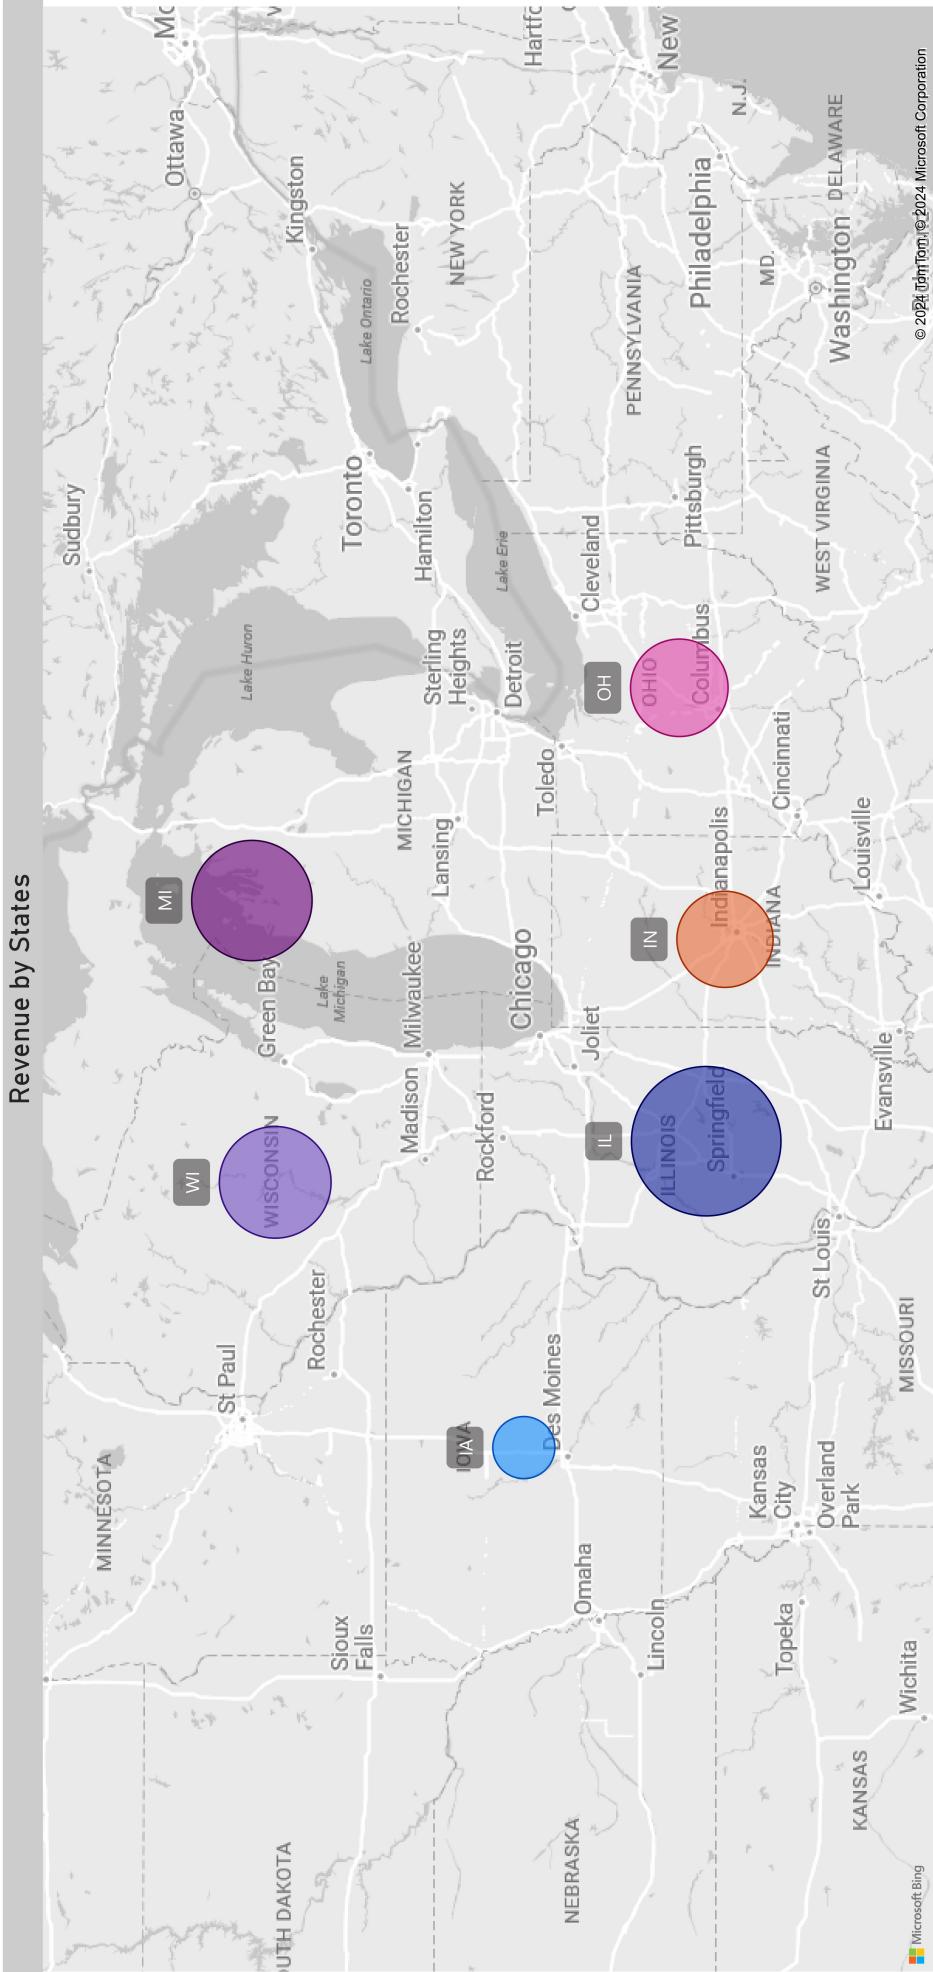

This graph will show the total profit generated over each route. Grand Rapids and Toledo is the highest profit generating route for the business leading by Green Bay and Joliet.

The highest number of trips were made in domestic leading by international and then intercom domestic hold or 60% of the total trips. An intercom is the least which is less than 5%.

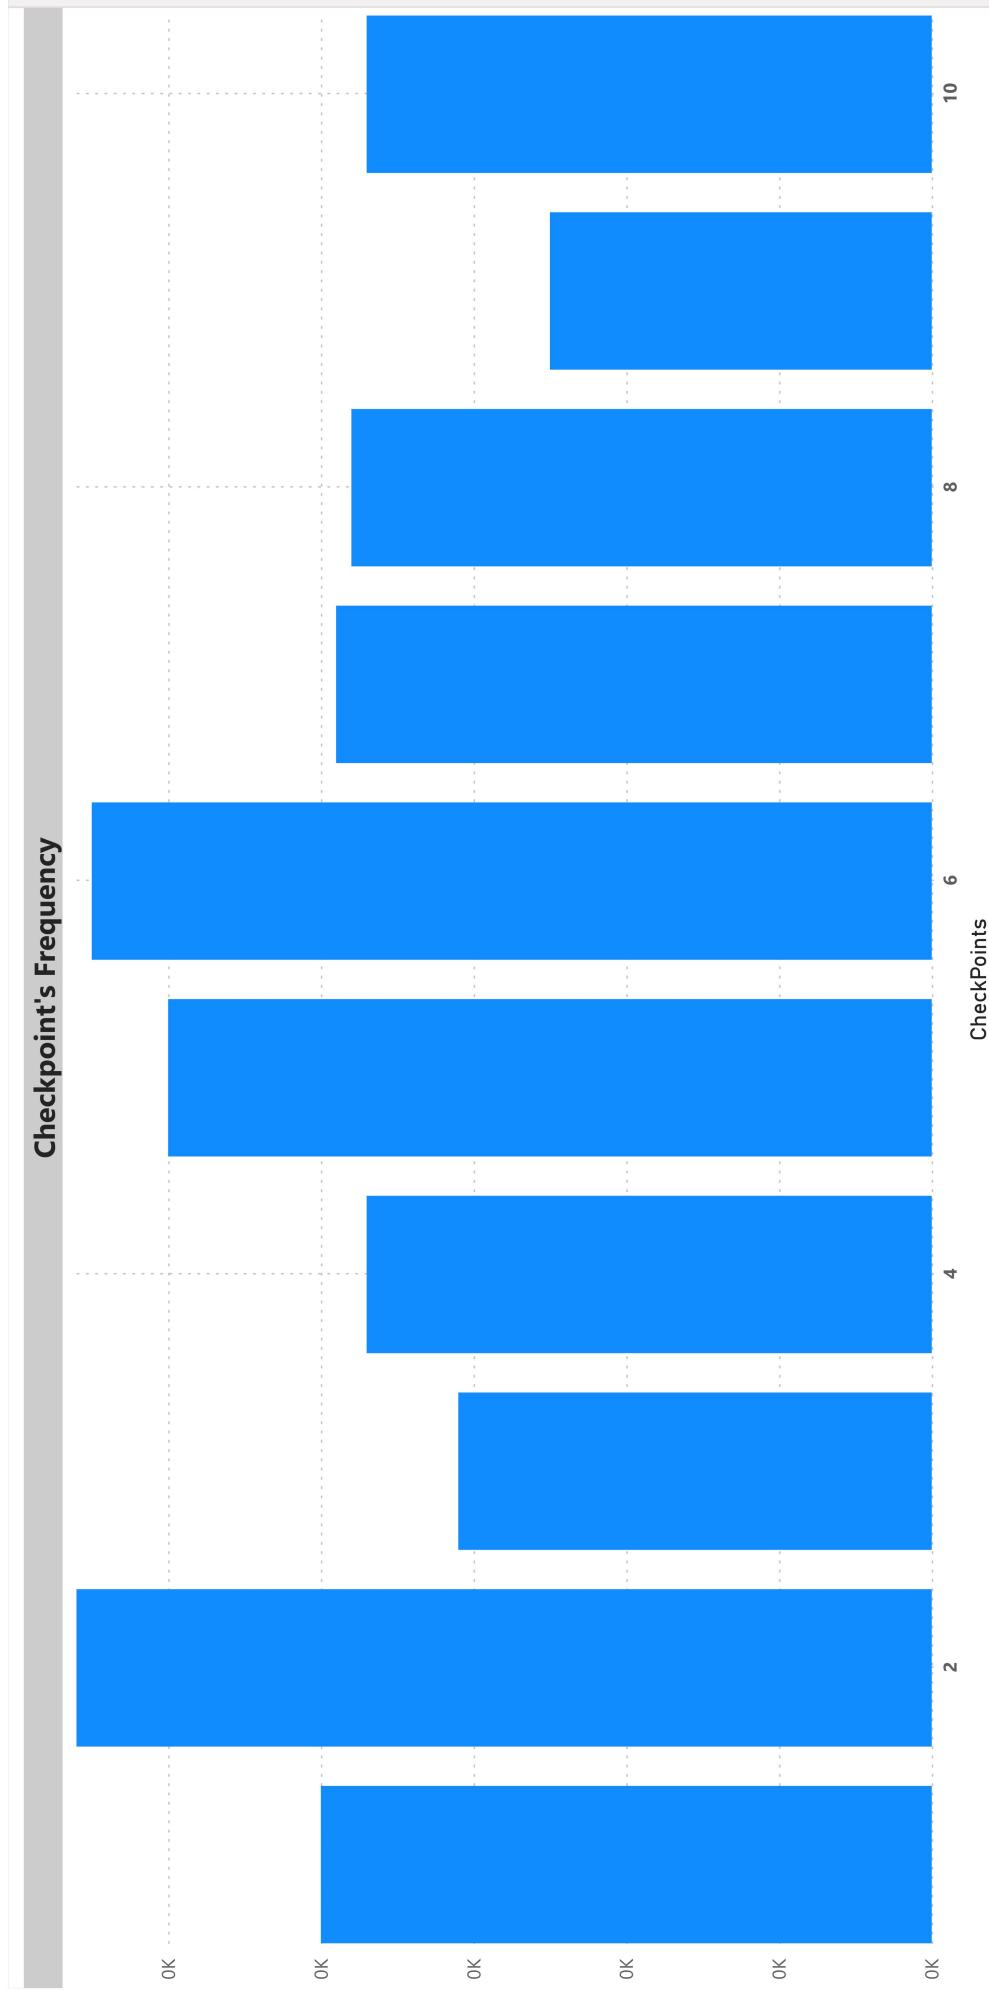

The shows the relationship between the capacity of the trip and the revenue generated on that trip that seems to be a Negative relation as the capacity increase the revenue decreases.

This shows the graphical representation of profit cost and revenue generated in a particular state.

Quick measure

This shows the frequency of checkpoints faced On every trip.